Notifications under the Bombay Agricultural Produce Market Act, 1939.

File No. Agri Pro. Mkt. II/52(1)

LEGAL DEPARTMENT.

A revised draft model notification is sent herewith

The R.L.A. is requested to advise whether the notification can be given retrospective effect so as to correspond to the date of the coming into force of the amending Act. The amending Act came into force on the 22nd September 1951. The effect of the Act is that after the said date a market yard can only be declared under a notification issued under clause (viia) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Act as amended by the amending Act and not under a notification under rule 51(a) of the Rules made under the Act as was done before the said date. As a market yard has now to be declared under the Act, the existing market yards may be notified again under the Act. But it is not necessary to give retrospective effect to such notification. The existing yards were validly constituted under the rules made under the Act. As soon as the relevant rule 51(a) is repealed the notification issued thereunder would be deemed to be repealed. The notifications under section 2(1)(viia are being issued in all cases and no difficulty would arise even if notifications under rule 51(a) lapse along with the repeal of the said rule.
